HEARTBREAK AT THE MUSEUM

MRS. ROTH THROWS IN THE TOWEL FOR HER HUSBAND, SPARING HIM PERMANENT INJURY

Written by John Gigio | Photos by Dwayne Larson

James Roth did the impossible: he won four matches in two nights and won the inaugural WPW Voyager Cup tournament. The Real Deal had racked up 15 straight wins heading in the WPW Championship match at FIGHT AT THE MUSEUM but this was his biggest challenge yet: The Canadian Hercules. Tyler Colton laid out Roth with half a dozen powerbombs but he just refused to quit, knowing that his friends and family were in the audience cheering him on. When Roth first entered the Manitoba Museum for his match, he handed his wife his towel, something he did before winning the Voyager Cup. Mrs. Roth couldn't stand to see her beloved husband in so much pain, and knowing that another powerbomb could result in permanent injury, she threw in the towel requesting the referee to stop the match. Tyler Colton retained the WPW Championship and James Roth lived to fight another day.

WHO CAN SIMMER RED HOT SUMMER?

RED HOT SUMMER CELEBRATE ONE YEAR AS WPW TAG TEAM CHAMPIONS!

Written by Elizabeth Mancini | Photos by Dwayne Larson

Since winning the WPW Tag Team Championship last May, Red Hot Summer have defeated some of the best teams in independent wrestling today. We've seen a more serious side out of Red Hot Summer, when confronted with top challengers like Australian Takeover and Fresh Air, and we've seen a lighter side when they dance to the ring in front of 1,000 fans at the Burton Cummings Theatre.

In April at FIGHT AT THE MUSEUM, they outlasted The Prosperity Gospel in a tables match and retained again. While fans are sure this isn't the last we've seen of The Prosperity Gospel, you've got to wonder what tricks they have up their sleeves to put a damper on Red Hot Summer's party and year-long reign!

NO MAN IS AN ISLAND

AN OLD FOE LENDS A HAND TO SWEET BOBBY... SHOULD HE TAKE IT?

Written by Sid Carreiro | Photos by Dannyel Carranza

We've seen a new side to Bobby Schink since losing his WPW Championship, and it's the kind of intensity that will lead him back to championship glory... if he can get rid of WPW General Manager James Korba. Korba's bodyguard Anderson Tyson Moore and Schink had one of the wildest matches in WPW history at the Manitoba Museum. Bobby had picked up the win but ATM wasn't done, pulling out a steel chair. Bobby's former rival AJ Sanchez, and no friend to James Korba or ATM, came to the rescue and chased them away. Sanchez went to shake the hand of Sweet Bobby but was rejected. Are Sanchez's intentions true? Can Schink trust a man he's battled countless times before?

BLACK IS THE NEW CHAMP

VANNA BLACK CLAIMS THE VACANT WOMEN'S TITLE

Written by Bruce Wellington | Photo by Jesse Spence

When the WPW Women's Championship was made vacant, fans were left wondering who would step up and take the belt that Jody Threat made famous. The WPW Board of Directors quickly put together a Championship match with two of Canada's best, Ava Lawless and Vanna Black, at FIGHT AT THE MUSEUM.

After an incredible back and forth match-up that could have ended several times over, Vanna Black hit her patented stunner and laid claim to the WPW Women's Championship. She is undefeated in WPW and already laid out the challenge to fan favourite Allie Katch at THE YOUNG & THE WRESTLERS.

Will Black be able to hold the gold?

CHAD DANIELS STANDS ALONE

After perhaps the most vicious match in WPW history, fans are left wondering... what's next for Chad Daniels?

Daniels may be the most hated wrestler on the WPW roster but it's impossible to deny his raw talent. Since turning his back on his mentor AJ Sanchez, Chad Daniels has racked up wins over some of the best in independent wrestling today.

What does this summer hold for Chizzled Chad? When he's not at Grand Beach working on his tan, he'll be at Blue Note Park July 26 and August 23!

NO HOLIDAY FOR CHEEKS

Written by Elizabeth Mancini | Photos by Dannyel Carranza

Josh "Cheeks" Holliday is on the hottest streak of his career. After getting his first singles win in WPW in December he's gone to the semi-finals of the Voyageur Cup, defeated Ronnie Attitude at WRECK ROOM 2 and toppled five other men in the Green Home Insulation Scramble Match. Cheeks has made his intentions clear since entering last year's RUMBLE IN THE BURT match: he wants the WPW Championship! With big wins like this, we're confident we'll see Josh Holliday in a WPW Championship match in no time.

THE LAST (BROKEN) TABLE

Written by Barbara Schofield | Photos by Dwayne Larson

The Prosperity Gospel may not have won the WPW Tag Team Championship Tables Match at FIGHT AT THE MUSEUM but they have made it clear they are a force to be reckoned with. Armed with the unlimited wealth of Scott Ripley the Third and the heavenly body of Tommy Lee Curtis, The Prosperity Gospel look to take over the tag team division this summer.
