TALE OF THE TITLE

WPW Champion AJ Sanchez has managed to hold onto his title for more than two years and faces another test June 10 against Kody Lane, but how did we get here?

The Canadian Crusher had been antagonizing and harrassing WPW General Manager James Korba for months leading up to the creation of the WPW Championship.

In the final moments AJ Sanchez landed a devastating belt-shot to his opponent and forced GM James Korba to count the 3, awarding his bitter rival the WPW Championship

For Sanchez' first title defense GM James Korba was looking for someone OUTLANDISH, he found none other than Zicky Dice!

After a fierce back-and-forth, the rookie Chad Daniels appeared from the sold out crowd, distracting the referee long enough for Sanchez to hit the low-blow and pick up the win.

What lengths will The Suplex Supreme go to hold onto his beloved WPW Championship?

WRESTLER PROFILE:
JODY THREAT

Toronto's own Jody Threat came to WPW with a simple goal, kick flips and kick ass. On the heels of her fourth appearance in Winnipeg get to know the Wildchild:

Jody Threat first debuted at WPW SHERB TIMES A CHARM in 2019 when she competed against Shotzi Blackheart in a triple threat match. Since then Jody has traveled all over North America honing her craft and developing new ways to inflict punishment.

Jody returned in December 2019 and defeated Alexia Nicole at WPW PAIN ACTUALLY (Available on WPW DVD) and cemented herself at the top of WPW's Women's Division.

The Wildchild was set to face Valentina Loca at WPW LOOK WHO'S WRESTLING but weather issues kept that match from happening. Jody Threat issued an open challenge and was confronted by the massive O'Doyle. Somehow the scrappy upstart Threat was able to pick up O'Doyle AND pick up the victory.

June 10th at WPW OH BEHAVE Jody Threat issue's another open challenge, who will step up and SEE RED?
